Things We ♥ for Families.

Build your own day filled with one-of-a-kind attractions, favorite places for entertainment, doggy parks galore, and lots of sweet stops.

6 Places to Play

From a throwback arcade to storybook walks through the woods, there's action for the high-energy household, plus ways for the creative set to discover inspo gallery-style.

1. The sky is the limit at Extreme Air Trampoline Park in Niles. You'll feel like a kid again during an action-packed adventure perfect for groups of all ages. Challenge your friends and family on trampoline basketball courts, foam pits, and dodgeball arenas before taking a break to enjoy some homemade ice cream.

2. Champion Lanes in Champion had a grand reopening in 2022, which unveiled new monitors, furniture, flooring, and a scoring system with 32 games that mix up typical bowling. The kids will get a kick out of Build a Monster, which challenges players to knock down a certain number of pins to "win" a head, body, arms, legs, and so on.

EASTWOOD FIELD: KEVIN KOPANSKI

Don't Miss

Fun in the sun by day or fireworks by night – any occasion offers the perfect excuse to take the entire family to a ball game at Eastwood Field in Niles, home of the Mahoning Valley Scrappers MLB draft league.

Tip for Your Trip: Bring an appetite for a build-your-own burger, classic baseball hot dog, or Dippin' Dots.

Eastwood Field, Niles

Past Times Arcade, Girard

End of the Commons General Store, Mesopotamia

3. Play pinball and retro-themed games at Past Times Arcade in Girard, where you'll find over 400 pinball machines and more than 200 classic arcade games that span nearly a century of production. Owner Rob Berk's passion for pinball began with a collection, then evolved into a literal pastime — and a Guinness World Record.

4. Wind down in nature and let your imagination take you through the pages of books in Trumbull County's Storybook Trails in Warren, Cortland, and Niles. These trails bring books to life and help you learn about nature from authors inspired by the outdoors.

5. For the DIYers, Party Art Café & Studio in Niles offers all kinds of classes, from acrylic painting, ceramics, and fused glass to watercolor. Get in on an event like Paint and Sip for adults, or host a kids' Cosmic Glow in the Dark painting party.

6. Trumbull Art Gallery, TAG for short, is more than a gallery; it's a community of local artists who operate a visual arts center in Warren. Duck into the gallery shop, where art for sale ranges from wearables such as handbags and hats to jewelry, décor, and wall art.

Spend a Day in Mesopotamia

Quaint Mesopotamia's town commons is a gathering hub for the Amish community and visitors, with nearby streets lined with about two dozen pre-Civil War buildings housing cafes, a general store, locally made pantry goods, and home cooking.

It's the fourth-largest Amish settlement in the country and rich with authentic, old-world traditions you can enjoy through Ridgeview Tours, which offers guided experiences and itineraries. Don't miss Between Two Rivers Trading Company, a one-of-a-kind shop with local artisan gifts and home goods on display.

End of the Commons General Store, circa 1840, stocks Amish-made meats and cheeses, over 150 varieties of glass bottle sodas, kitchen gadgets, memorabilia, and of course, penny candy at the register. Don't leave without one of their handmade fry pies!

You can't miss the world's largest Amish horse and buggy — a 14-foot roadside attraction with wheels that are 7 feet in diameter. (Selfie, anyone?)

Cone, cup, container, or sandwiched between cookies; there is no wrong way to indulge in ice cream. Whether you're a mint chocolate chip traditionalist or lover of seasonal flavors, you'll find it all!

Cockeye Creamery in Warren mixes up fresh flavors for its ever-changing menu. Not to worry, chocolate connoisseurs, their award-winning Deep Chocolate is always available. Make room for seasonal flavors and bold favorites like Peanut Butter Pie.

Some ice cream trivia – Super-Premium isn't just a catchy way to say "really great ice cream." It's an FDA term, and only manufacturers whose ice cream contains 14 to 16% butterfat and a low amount of whipped air can claim the Super-Premium status.

Katie's Korner Ice Cream in Howland is one of them, and so is Cockeye Creamery!

Step into Something Extraordinary

Turkey Run Trail, Cortland

Tee up for a golf excursion and tuck in at a well-appointed mansion — or take to nature in a different way by hiking, fishing, paddling, and camping at one of the county's parks. Here are some ideas to jumpstart your day trip!

5 Ways to Explore the Outdoors

1. The Western Reserve Greenway Trail has one of the most scenic paved trails in the state, perfect for summer biking. Bordering the Mahoning River, the Thomas A. Swift Metropark offers seclusion with a biking trail through meadows. If hiking is more the vibe, Eastlake Metro Park has an excellent tree canopy. Use the connector to the Turkey Run Trail here to hike alongside Mosquito Lake.

2. During the migration seasons, birders flock to Mosquito Creek Wildlife Area to observe blue herons and even bald eagles. Shenango Wildlife Area might be a bit out of the way, but its remote location offers prime viewing of less common birds to northern Ohio, like orchard orioles.

3. As a wild and scenic river, Pymatuning Creek will be your best friend for catching yellow perch and northern pike. If you're looking to hook a few walleye or muskellunge, give the Mahoning River a try. Or, take to the Grand River to reel in some catfish, panfish, and bass.

4. Mosquito Lake offers forested and wetland sections to explore and is packed with rare species. Need a kayak? Mahoning River Adventures makes entry into the sport stress-free with rentable gear.

5. Fans of disc golf will find seven courses across the county to play, including ones at Kent Trumbull, by the beach at Mosquito Lake, and at Tiger Town in Howland.

Pine Lakes Golf Club, Hubbard

Tee Up, Trumbull Style

Trumbull County is known for its well-maintained golf courses that blend technical challenges with scenic landscapes. Never run out of courses to play on the Penn-Ohio Golf Trail, featuring 24 stellar 4- and 5-star courses across Northeast Ohio and western Pennsylvania.

Book a ready-made package on the Penn-Ohio Golf Trail that includes three days of golf and two nights of accommodations, or design your own experience with the help of staff. All told, the trail's 78 courses are complemented with 15 private clubs, five mansions, hotels in eight destinations, and local dining.

If you want to golf easy and stay overnight, it's an effortless way to focus on the game and not the travel logistics. Here's a sample of Trumbull County destinations to do so:

- Pine Lakes Golf Club, Hubbard – the PGA-approved practice facility is incredible.
- Yankee Run Golf Course, Brookfield – one of Ohio's top 10 public courses offering a club house, on-site golf pro, restaurant, retail, and a picnic shelter for up to 150 people.
- Avalon Lakes, Warren – designed by Pete Dye and known for its many water hazards.

Plus: Looking to sneak in another round before sundown? Hit up Vienna's 9-hole Hidden Oaks Golf Course, a par 36 course complete with a driving range and putting green.

Spend the Day at Mosquito Lake

You'll discover activities to fill a day, weekend, or extended stay. Pack a cooler with snacks, rent a pontoon boat from the marina, and embark on a sunny lake tour. Don't forget your fishing rods – even beginners find this lake to be packed with hungry walleye, bass, and northern pike. Take to the multi-use trails to enjoy the scenic shoreline by foot or bike before cooling off at the 600-foot beach.

If you're planning to spend the night, book early to get a campsite with a lakeside view. Or, tuck your setup into the grove of tall, thin trees that offer separation from your fellow campers.

A full-page photograph of a smiling couple in an orchard. The woman on the left has curly hair and wears sunglasses and a light blue shirt, reaching up towards a tree branch. The man on the right is bald with a goatee, wearing a striped shirt, and has his hands outstretched. A single red apple is captured mid-air between them. The background shows lush green trees and a clear blue sky.

As you stroll along Historic Mahoning Avenue, imagine yourself back in the Victorian era when this area was quite fashionable and filled with a mixture of shops and homes.

This is where the local affluent – the “Who’s Who” of American industry, commerce, and politics – built and lived in stately homes and mansions that lined the streets during the mid-to-late 1800s.

Recognized as national treasures, many of these structures have been restored to their original grandeur. Today, they are home to businesses, museums, offices, and private residences.

In the early days of Trumbull County, Mahoning Avenue was also known as the Warren-Ashtabula Turnpike, which played a significant role in the local Underground Railroad movement.
